DREAM A LITTLE DREAM

The Senior class presented a three-act farce "Dream A Little Dream" on November 18, 1959. The play revolved around a sixteen-year-old girl, Maggie Kearns, her family and her girl friends. Especially annoying to her were her father's unorthodox political views. Roland Kearns manages to have himself arrested and put into jail as a protest measure against a tax bill being considered by the state legislature. Maggie is completely mortified by this state of events. At the end of the play, however, Maggie feels quite successful because her father's tactics have been successful and because she has been asked for a date by the most wonderful boy in the Senior class.

The play was under the direction of Mrs. Jo Anne Osborne.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

JUNIOR PROM

On the evening of May 22, 1959, the annual Senior Reception was held in the H.C.H. gym. The theme was Southern Serenade. Under the co-chairmanship of Alrick Klemett and Janice Marcantonio, the gym was gayly decorated with blue balloons and crepe paper, and murals which provided a scenic southern background. The greatest attraction was the water fountain spraying blue water on pine boughs which were placed in the center of the fountain. To highlight the prom, Miss Vicki Maki was chosen the Southern Belle. Under the capable supervision of Mr. Sarasin, the prom was a huge success.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

On April 15, 1959, the Junior Class presented a three act mystery-comedy entitled "Bull in a China Shop". The play revolved around a boarding house in which six old maids made their home. Their greatest desire was to gain the attention of Dennis O'Finn, handsome, bachelor detective who lived across the street. Interesting results were obtained when the ladies try to lure him to their home.

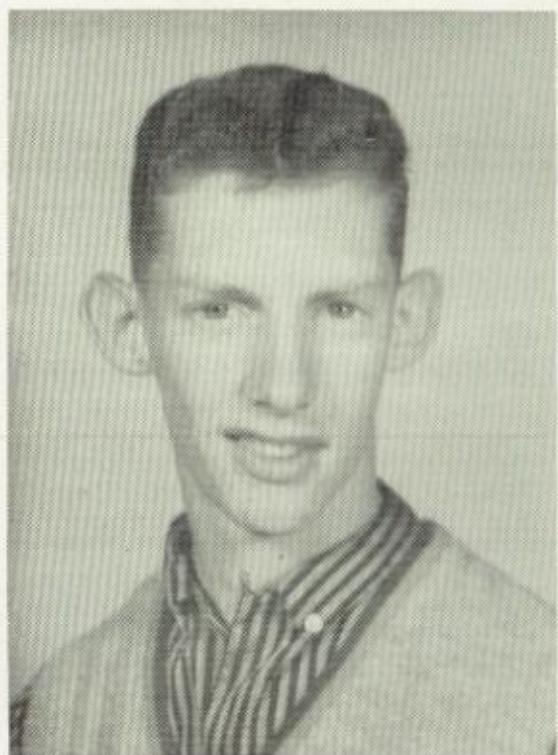

Our play was ably directed by Miss Alyce Gallmore.

In conference play the Hancock Varsity won five games and lost one for second place in the Copper Country Conference. Two other non-conference games were dropped for a season record of 5 and 3. The Copper Bowl trophy was kept in Hancock for the sixth consecutive year.

Led by Co-Captains John Zucco and Charles Mason, the Bulldogs scored a total of 227 points while allowing their opponents 77.

Charles Mason's 130 points for the season set an all time H. C. H. scoring record and placed him second in the U. P. scoring. He was also selected for a berth on the U. P. squad. Alrick Klemett, Bill Fournier, and Dale Paulson gained Honorable Mention in the U. P. Dave Honkanen, Ray Piiparinen, Alrick Klemett, Jim Piiparinen, and Charles Mason made the "All-Conference Team," while Tauno Watia, Bill Bingham, Bill Fournier, Richard Brey and Dale Paulson placed on the second team.

The eventful season reflects the capability of the coaching staff of Robert Salani, Gordon Barkell and John Kroneck.

BULLDOGS IN ACTION

HANCOCK CENTRAL HIGH SKI TEAM

With Mrs. Delli Quadri as advisor, the Hancock Ski Team had a very fine season as the boys' and girls' teams won a trophy apiece in the Giant Slalom at the Blue Key Meet and combined to win the Henderson Trophy in the Houghton-Hancock dual meet. The girls' team won the U. P. Regional Trophy in the U. P. Regional Meet held in Iron Mountain. In the Ironwood Invitational Meet the Hancock boys' team placed fourth in competition with eleven schools.

Seniors on the boys' team were Tauno Watia and Captain Phil Henderson. On the girls' team the Seniors were Nicole Young and Captain Nancy Johnson.

Two members of the team, Peggy Foley and Phil Henderson earned berths on the Central United States Ski Association Team that participated in the National Meet.

Edward Molise, Tauno Watia, James Slattery, Philip Henderson, Ray Kolehmainen, David Aldrich, Kelly Pinten.

Ruth Almli, Carla Kemppainen, Sheila Klatzky, Nancy Johnson, Nicole Young, Peggy Foley, Dona Caspary, Ellen Aldrich.
